CYGNET THEATRE COMPANY HOSTS BENEFIT “SUNDOWN SAFARI”

AT WORLD-FAMOUS SAN DIEGO ZOO ON APRIL 26, 2008

SAN DIEGO, CA – Cygnet Theatre Company will host “Sundown Safari,” its fourth annual benefit event, in the private party venue at the World-Famous San Diego Zoo on Saturday, April 26th at 6 p.m. The event is underwritten by Robert Shapiro and Flossie Cohen.

The evening will feature an appetizer reception and buffet dinner, with entertainment by San Diego favorite Karole Foreman, as well as live and silent auctions, exotic animal presentations and dancing under the stars to the music of San Diego’s own Cat-illacs. Guests will be able to stroll the Zoo grounds prior to the party from 4 to 6 p.m.

The live auction features a near impossible to acquire five-course dinner with wine pairings, for 10, prepared in your home by TOP CHEF finalist and Oceanaire Seafood Room Executive Chef, Brian Malarkey. Or Mark Christopher Lawrence from NBC’s “Chuck” will prepare dinner in your home for your family. Other items include trips to Budapest, Hawaii, New York City and a seven day cruise on Holland America.

For party information, contact Cygnet Theatre at (619) 698-5855, extension 113. Tickets are $100 and $150 each and all proceeds benefit Cygnet Theatre Company, according to event co-chairmen Pamela Richards and Jessica John.

Cygnnet Theatre, which is headquartered in the Rolando area of San Diego, recently signed a 10-year contract with the State of California to operate the Old Town Theatre. Cygnnet will continue to present live theatrical presentations in its original location near San Diego State University, as well as in the Old Town Theatre.

The first production at the Old Town Theatre is Stephen Sondheim's "A Little Night Music," running March 22 and run through May 4. Following that production, the Old Town Theatre will be closed for renovations until late November.

The final presentation of the 2007-2008 season is "A Number," a "beguiling psychological thriller" which will open for previews on May 22 at Cygnnet's Rolando location, 6663 El Cajon Boulevard.
