ABOUT OUR WINE SERIES PARTNER:

Hacienda de las Rosas Winery, Vineyards and Peruvian Paso Horse Ranch is a dream and passion for couple, William Holzhauer and Tammy Rimes. Starting in 1998, they chose a beautiful picturesque property in Ramona, California for their home and winery. Over the years, they have planted the vineyards, built the horse facilities, developed a breeding program and constructed a winery where they embrace the essence of Spanish wine making traditions. Their love of land and agricultural life has led to their family motto "Drink Fine Wine...Ride Fine Horses."

William and Tammy, with their three children – Saum, Shireen and Jonathan – chose to open their wine tasting room in Historic Old Town, San Diego within the Fiesta de Reyes. This lovely and unique business features their Spanish style wines, an early California historical theme, a charming tasting room, family wines and purchasable products featured and sold during San Diego's historic time period. Visit their website for more information: www.haciendawinery.com.

Cygnet Theatre Company is a 501(k) non-profit organization founded in 2002 by Artistic Director Sean Murray and Executive Director Bill Schmidt. In 2003, Cygnet renovated a storefront at 6663 El Cajon Blvd in the Rolando area into a 157-seat theatre. Cygnet has received over 40 awards and grown to one of the most highly regarded theatre companies in the San Diego area. In December 2007, Cygnet was awarded a 10-year lease by State of California Department of Parks and Recreation Concessions and Reservations Division of the Old Town Theatre. Located in Old Town San Diego State Historic Park, the 248-seat venue was renovated during the summer and fall of 2008 and re-opened in November.
